CONFERENCE MEETS SOON

Representatives of Pan - American Countries Making Plans to Reassemble at Early Date.

Convinced that Gen. Carranza will refuse to assent to the proposal that he join with the other leaders of Mexico with a view to settling conditions in that country by peaceful measures, the seven signatory governments to the pan-American conference are making arrangements to reassemble that body at an early date.

Carranza is determined to push his fight regardless of the endeavors of the pan-American conference, and he is now engaged in a campaign designed to civil governors and military commanders that acknowledge his chieftainship will that acknowledge his chiertainship will stand by him to the end. Responses to the pan-American note forwarded to Mexico last week were re-ceived yesterday from six Carranzista leaders of prominence. Four of them were directed to the seven republics that compose the conference. Two were replies sent to Carranza, copies of replies sent to Carranza, copies of which were made public at the Car-ranza agency yesterday. The six lead-ers in question proclaim their loyalty to the first chief, and suggest that for them to make a response to the conference indicating either dissent or assent to the peace proposal would amount to an act of insubordination.

Replies form Six Chiefs.

The six Carranzistas who protest loyalty the first chief and indicate that Mex ico must be left to herself to right her sovereignty are: Gen. Candido Aguilar. governor and military commander of the state of Vera Cruz; Gen. Alfredo Elizongovernor and military commander of he state of Michoacan; Gen. E. Ricaut, nilitary commander of the garrison at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas; Gen. Fran-cisco Murguia, commanding a division operating under Gen. Alvaro Obregon; Gen. Jacinto B. Brevino, military com-mander of the constitutionalist army at Monterey, and Gen. Alojo Gonzales, mili-tary commander of San Luis Potosi. Gen. Aguilar, who speaks for himself and Gens. Elizondo, Ricaut, and Murguia, nade a response as follows: "Being accustomed faithfully to do my duty, I could not reply to your excel-lencies' courteous note without a breach of that discipline which has caused us irmly to rally around our chief, who is the only one authorized, on account of his high investitude, to reply to the circular note to which I have referred. Moreover, because all constitutionalist leaders feel confident that he will know, now as always, how to find inspiration in most serene and firm patriotism, in the face of the new serious obstacle with which the reaction pretends, as a last resort, to arrest our work of liberty. ustice and peace. In a matter which so directly affects the sovereignty of my country, not one of the constitutionalist leaders can individually take any action, as to act otherwise, the cohesion which should exist between all the military and civil elements would be broken, and therefore, all I can do is to transmit our excellencies' note to Mr. Venustiane

ELISEO ARREDONDO.

ELISEO ARREDONDO.

Eliseo Arredondo, Gen. Carranza's representative in Washington, is attracting official attention just now, when Carranza's attitude toward the peace proposal of the pan-American conference is a matter of conjecture. Although still under 40 years of age, Arredondo has been a member of the Mexican Congress, federal judge, and assistant secretary of the interior.

Delegates from Hebrew Organizations to Gather October 24.

FINANCIAL RELIEF TOPIC

Plans for Betterment of Race After the War Also to Be Discussed.

A conference of 150 delegates, representing practically the entire Jewish population of the United States, will meet .n this city October 24 and 25 to provide imnediate financial relief for the suffering mediate mancial relief for the sunering and persecuted Jews of Europe and to discuss plans for the betterment of the Jewish people after the war. It was learned last night that the movement is being supported by the leading national Jewish organizations.

At a meeting of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations in Chicago last January Rev. Dr. David Phillipson, of Cincinnati, emphasized the fact that the Cincinnati, emphasized the fact that the Jews of this country might be able to obtain more freedom for the Jews of the old world by a united appeal. Dr. Phillipson's idea was grasped by those present, and a few weeks later the American Jewish committee, of New York, had launched the movement that has resulted in the calling of the meeting here.

ing here.
"The first step to be taken by the con-"The first step to be taken by the conference will be to raise as much money as possible, as quickly as possible, for the relief of the suffering Jews of Russia and the other war-ridden countries," said Dr. Abram Simon, of the Washington Hebrew Congregation, in discussing the proposed conference last night. Dr. Simon is interested in the waveness.

Simon is interested in the movement.

"The second step to be considered by the conference," he went on, "will be "What can we do for the Jews of Europe after the war?" This will be the more complex of the two, and a successful answer to it depends entirely upon the outcome of the war. It also will depend upon the honor of the ruling nations.
When Roumania's freedom was declared the Jewish people of the province were given hundreds of promises, but they

by the movement that has been started by by Zionists, to request the nations of Europe to recognize Jerusalem as the legal home of the Jewish people, and to treat them accordingly in that terri-

"Any steps toward the realization of that plan," said Dr. Simon, "will depend on who holds Jerusalem when the war on who holds Jerusalem when the war is over. It does not seem likely that the allies will be able to wrest it from the Turks, and if Turkey controls it at the end of the war I see very little hope for the realization of the plan for a legal home in Palestine. For Turkey already has shown its attitude toward the ew. "As for the 7,000,000 Jews in Poland and southern Russia, their fate after the war will depend largely upon what Germany intends to do with the territory which regain Poland at the end of the war, the Jews would be as bad off, if not worse, than before the war. For Russia has gone further than any other country in persecuting the Jew. The Jews in Russia today, and, in fact, throughout the war zone, are suffering unknown ardships. They are fighting each other. Weight of United Appeal.

cause and preferring to success than to permit a foreigner to trample on our soll or to destroy the liberating work of the armed people of Mexico, as the matters of Mexico should be decided only and exclusively by Mexico."

The significance of Carranza's action in permitting the publication of such messages is not lost on those identified with the pan-American conference. Carranza is thus preparing the United States probably would carry more clared that hardly a day passes without complaints from business men on the inadequate arrangement of having no branch office in the heart of the business section. It is understood with the pan-American conference. Carranza is thus preparing the United States probably would carry more weight in securing relief for the Jews of Europe when peace negotiations are being framed after the war. But he inadequate arrangement of having no branch office in the heart of the business section. It was learned that the plan to estab-lish a legal home for Jews at Palestine is being fostered only by the Zionists. While all the Jewish people are agreed upon the first two steps—the providing of immediate financial relief, and the securing of equal rights for Jews throughout the world—it was said on good authority that there probably will be a disagreement on the plan of establishing a national home at Palestine.

The organizations that will be represented at the conference her in October include the Kehillah Society of New York, the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, Independent Order of Sale Lake City. York, the Chion of American Review Congregations, Independent Order of B'nai B'rith, Central Conference of American Rabbis, Orthodox Union of Congregations and Rabbis, National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods and the National Council of Jewish Women.

Mrs. Abram Simon is president of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods.
